The Schubert Men's Singing Club

PRESENTS

The Entire

Portland Symphony Orchestra
RUSSELL AMES COOK, Conductor

St. John's Hall
Corner Main and Elm Streets

Sunday, April 7, 1946, at 8.15 P. M.
I  Overture, "The Marriage of Figaro"
Mozart

II  Chorale from "Wachet auf! Ruft uns die Stimme"
Bach

III  "Roumanian Rhapsody"
Enesco
Opus 11, No. 1 in A Major

Intermission

The Schubert Men’s Singing Club wishes to thank each and everyone of you in the audience this evening for your magnificent cooperation in making this concert one which shall be long remembered.
IV Red Cavalry March                          Gould

V "Kamennoi-Ostrow"                           Rubinstein

VI Waltz, "Tales from The Vienna Woods"      Strauss

VII Gypsy Tango, "Jealousy"                   Gade

VIII Selection from "Show Boat"              Kern

We also wish to thank Mr. Russell Ames Cook and all the members of the Portland Symphony Orchestra for this, their first appearance locally. We wish them continued success, and look forward to a closer and continued friendship.