JOHN T. GORMAN AWARD CONCERT
FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Third Concert of the Thirty-seventh Season
SUNDAY, JANUARY 29, 1961 – 3:00 P. M.
ROUBEN GREGORIAN, Conductor

OVERTURE TO RAYMOND ............... Charles Thomas
LITTLE FUGUE IN G MINOR ............ Johann Sebastian Bach
A CHILDREN’S SYMPHONY .............. Harl McDonald

JOHN T. GORMAN AWARDS, 1960 COMPETITION presented by

THE HONORABLE JOHN H. REED, Governor of Maine
Phillip M. Simonds, Pianist, Portland, Grand Award
Thomas W. Flynn, Trumpet, Lewiston, Runner-up
Hilda J. Grant, Soprano, Freeport, Runner-up
Mary G. Rollston, Soprano, Yarmouth, Runner-up

1st MOVEMENT PIANO CONCERTO IN A MINOR .... Edvard Grieg
Phillip Simonds, Soloist

VARIATIONS ON “POP GOES THE WEASEL” .......... Lucien Caillet

COLONEL BOGEY MARCH .................... Kenneth Alford

The Baldwin is the official piano of the Portland Symphony Orchestra

In loving memory of Olive Pratt Atherton, for many years a member of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, who passed away January 18, 1961.