PORTLAND SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

ARTHUR BENNETT LIPKIN, Conducting

and

BENOIT'S

PRESENT

The First of Two Young People's Concerts

Tuesday — December 11, 1962

2 p.m. Portland City Hall

Tickets for the second concert on March 26, sponsored by Pepsi-Cola, on sale in all schools.
Program

GLINKA ........................................................................................................... Overture to “Russlan and Ludmilla”

DEMONSTRATION ........................................................................................................... of String Instruments

MOZART ........................................................................................................................... Minuet for String Orchestra

DEMONSTRATION ........................................................................................................... of Woodwind Instruments

HARL MCDONALD ........................................................................................................... Legend of the Arkansas Traveller for Full Orchestra

HAYDN ........................................................................................................................... Toy Symphony

LeROY ANDERSON ........................................................................................................... Sleigh Ride

The Waltzing Cat

It is a privilege to have had the opportunity of sponsoring this, the first Young People’s Concert, by the Portland Symphony Orchestra. We hope you enjoy this as well as the second Concert to be given in March.

A. H. Benoit Company