PORTLAND SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

ARTHUR BENNETT LIPKIN, Conducting

and

PEPSI-COLA

PRESENT

The Second Young People's Concert

Tuesday, March 26, 1963
PROGRAM

SERGE PROKOFIEFF ......................................................... March — from the Opera "The Loves of Three Oranges"

DEMONSTRATION ............................................................. of Brass Instruments

COPELAND ................................................................. "Fan Fare No. I"

PISTON ................................................................. "Fan Fare No. II"

MORTON GOULD .......................................................... "American Salute"

LEROY ANDERSON .......................................................... "The Typewriter"

DONNA TREFRY, Soloist

SURPRISE SOLOIST

DEMONSTRATION ......................................................... of Percussion Instruments

ADOLPH SCHREINER ....................................................... "The Worried Drummer"

EVERETT BEALE, Soloist

FUTURE CONDUCTORS

GEORGES BIZET .......................................................... "Farandole", from "L'Arlesienne"

It is a privilege to have had the opportunity of sponsoring this Young People’s Concert, by the Portland Symphony Orchestra. We hope you enjoy this wonderful afternoon of music.

Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co.