PORTLAND SUMMER SYMPHONY
Paul Vermel, Conductor
Yarmouth Clam Festival, Yarmouth, Maine
July 19, 1970

BAGLEY  National Emblem March
WEBB    Up, Up and Away
STYNE   Funny Girl Overture
LOEWE   Selections from My Fair Lady
VON SUPPE  Poet and Peasant Overture
BERNSTEIN Selections from West Side Story
STRAUSS Emperor Waltz
PUCCINI Musetta's Waltz, from La Boheme
GERSHWIN My Man's Gone Now, from Porgy and Bess
MISS MAINE, KAREN JOHNSON
BACHRACH Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head
MERRILL  Step To the Rear, from How Now, Dow Jones

This concert is made possible by the Maine State Arts Commission, the Yarmouth Clam Festival and the Portland Symphony Orchestra
Sound courtesy New England Music Co.
This is a first-time venture for the PORTLAND SUMMER SYMPHONY. Members include several musicians from each of the three Portland Symphony music organizations: the Portland Junior Symphony, the Community Orchestra of the Portland Symphony and the Portland Symphony Orchestra. The next concert will take place in front of City Hall in Portland as a part of the Festival of the Arts, "Harlequinade", August 23.

* * *

The regular series of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, Paul Vermel, Music Director, begins October 13, 1970, with soprano Eileen Farrell. Other artists include guitarist John Williams, pianist Lorin Hollander and PSO concertmaster Stephen Kecskemethy. The seven-concert subscription ticket, from $14 to $30, is available at the Symphony Office, 30 Myrtle Street, Portland, at the rear of City Hall. The PSO will be celebrating the Beethoven bicentennial. Call 773-8191.

* * *

HARLEQUINADE is the name of the first Festival of the Arts sponsored by the Greater Portland Arts Council. This three-day affair commences Friday, August 21 with a noontime parade down Congress Street, and ends with the aforementioned PSS concert Sunday evening. Virtually every performing arts group in the Greater Portland area will have a presentation and Friday evening's festivities include a rock dance, a square dance and a Harlequin Ball. Best of all, everything is free! Plan to attend.

* * *

PSO, 30 Myrtle St., Portland, Me. 04111
Russell I. Burleigh, Manager