General Concert Theme

This is a performance of selections from one of Broadway’s most popular shows, Fiddler on the Roof. The format of the concert will include enough narration to help students follow the story. The performers will include members of the Maine State Music Theatre and musicians from the Portland Symphony.

As this may be the introduction to musical theater for many young listeners, the following information may help familiarize them with the story behind Fiddler on the Roof and behind musical theater in general.

The Program

Toshiyuki Shimada, Conductor
