The Creation

Please join Maestro Moody for our PostConcert Q&A in Merrill Auditorium immediately following tonight’s performance.

This concert can be heard on the Maine Public Broadcasting Network over the radio on Wednesday, March 20, 2013 at 8:00 pm.

As a courtesy to the musicians and other audience members, please remember to turn off all pagers, cellular phones, watch signals, and other electronic devices. The use of photographic and recording equipment during the performance is strictly prohibited. This concert will last approximately one and one-half hours, including intermission.
THE CHORAL ART SOCIETY was founded in 1972 under Music Director Dr. Harold Brown. Dr. Robert Russell became Music Director in 1979. The group has more than 150 members who perform in three distinct ensembles: the symphonic Masterworks Chorus, the mid-sized Choral Art Singers, and the intimate a cappella Camerata. All singers are skilled amateurs, selected by audition and required to re-audition periodically. The Society offers an annual concert series and appears regularly with the Portland Symphony Orchestra. The Society has commissioned works from Dan Locklair, Jerry Bowder, Travis Ramsey, Derek Holman, George Andoniadis, Scott Harris, J. Mark Scearce, and Charles Kauffman. The Choral Art Society collaborates with the Portland Ballet Company, most recently in a 2007 performance of Carmina Burana. The Society toured Europe in 2001 and sang at the Washington National Cathedral in 2002. For more information about The Choral Art Society and the season of performances visit www.choralart.org or call (207) 828-0043.
